sel, and the very Judge on the every vile weapon of Billing-gate warfare. Judge Major instantly sen a letter to Cockerell by Gen. Hodge demanding reparation. He refused either to do one thing or another and both Major and Hounshell, by cards in the Commercial, denounce

Torrell will certainly be acquitted.

Custer's Black Hills Exped

Discovers Oodles of it.

California, Idaho, Montana and

New Mexico are laid in the shade

The Black Hills region, bitherto al most unknown, turns out to be land of gold. The exploring expedition sent out by the governmen

under Gen. Custer, has just return ed, and its success is complete, the iscoveries being beyond all expect

Missouri, which was never before trav ersed by any white man other than

n beautiful scenery, as well as magnificent and wonderful gold deposits.

Paul, dated August 31, gives some

The explorers are well satisfied with the prospects and are ready to conduct as expedition into the new Eldorado as soon as the Indian title is extinguished, or as soon as they are satisfied the governmen soon as they are satisfied the government will not interfere. The impression pre-rails generally that it will be impossible to prevent parties from occupying the sountry, because they will seek to enter it from every quarter, from east, west and south, as well as from Bismarck, the pear-command. Gold in unlimited quantities was discovered at various points, also silver and lead, galena, plumbago, mountains of iron and inextransitible beds of gypsuta. The search for gold was not exhaustive as halts were brief, but at one point to what will be bereafter known as Custer's park, a shaft was sunk to adepth of eight feet and from the grass roots down, gold was found amounting to five cents per pan at the top and increasing in amount to twenty cents at the depth or eight feet. The bed rook was not reached and yet shot gold was found. The fluming Water region, reported by the fluming Water region, reported by the fludiants to be exceedingly rich, and the Big Horn region, known to abound in gold, were not explored for the lack of time. Custer guich, where twenty of out, were not explored to the lack of me. Custer guich, where twenty of he boys took gold claims, declaring heir intention to occupy them as soon as eaceable possession of the country can e obtained, in situated seven miles south f Harney's Peak, and 250 miles from

WOODSON'S EFFICIENCY.

Under this head, the St. Louis

Vestern Watchman, the organ of minutes, the three rode slowly de

The following dispatch from !

ery interesting particulars :

BOLD | GOLD !

him as a dastardly scoundrel, utterly

of Billing-gate

bench, were daily

Texington Cancasian.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. FOR GOVERNOR CHARLES H. HARDIN OB LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR NORMAN J. COLMAN. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE: M. K. McGRATH. FOR TREASURER OF STATE JOSEPH W. MERCER FOR AUDITOR OF STATE: THOMAS HOLLIDAY FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL: JOHN A. HOCKADAY FOR REGISTER OF LANDS GEORGE DIEGEL.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC SCI R. D. SHANNON OR OF SUPREME COURT-LONG WARWICK HOUGH. JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT-SHORT TER WILLIAM P. NAPTON.

COUNTY TICKET. POR JUDGE OF THE COUNTY COURT BENJAMIN D. WEEDIN. Prom Clay, Sni-s-Bar and Washin BENJAMIN F. VICKERS

Headlee is beedless and will ! headless ere long.

Prof. Blot, the culinary artist, ha just been Blot-ted out. If gentry means rank by election

Gentry will not be gentry in No-delicacy in Kansas. The natives in variably pronounce it with a "d" in

We know him; he's a good fel low-that 1.3d party nominee for secretary of state. His name is Leflet, and be'll be lef'-flat in No-

Is there no way to get up a ticker with old granny Tom Allen and Bill pretty pair of patriots they'd make the girls of our state being molded apon some gallows-tree together.

A jeweler of poetic turn said bis diamonds were "as sparkling as a young widow's tears;" and, though his gems had been the basest paste be might bave added, "and infinitely less false."

Donaldson started up in the air the otherday, with six newspaper men in his balloon. He will probably never come to earth again, as he can't ge he newspaper men out.

The scriptures tell us of 5 foolist virgins, who had no oil in their lamps. The newspapers tell of 5,000 more foolish virgins, who fill their lamps far too much with combusts ble and bustable kerosene and petro gentleman now-a-days, till be turns mother's stockings is sure to be revealed. That's the high-toned wants to give our 1-3d party foes "a Palo Alto defeat" and "consign them to the tombs of the Capulets. From Mexico to Italy, venerable roos ter, would involve too heavy an ex pense for transportation of corpses. Put your battle fields and sepulchres nearer together.

It is rumored that Pennsylvania's gigantic head-thief and jobber, old Simon Cameron, intends to resign his seat in the senate. If he does we may look for a speedy transistion scene, in which the serial bug gy and horses of fire will move down instead of upward. Enoch and Bit jah will be discounted by the amount of blaze and brimstone scollops.

Woman-suffrage, she-rooster-ism, finds staunch advocates in three North Methodist bishops, Simpson, Bowen and Haven. They're trinity of whitewashed scoundrels, who have dabbled in every bereay. wallowed in every crime of bogu-Puritan progress. They're apostleof perdition, of the Beecher type, and the very fact of their advocating any movement ought to dame it with all true men and women too.

Gen. W. S. Hancock informs his friends that be is an aspirant for presidential honors, or-as the place is run just now-dishonors. He says that, among all the candidates who will be brought forward,-and their name is legion, -he thinks there are considerations which entitle him te party favor. Will the president of the military commission which hung poer old widow Surratt, be good enough to specify his peculiar claims upon the Democracy, and much oblige the Caucasian?

Leonard W. Jerome, a well-known millionaire, has just effected a sale a wretched, little, few-hours old waif soon hear of it, of one of his daughters to an Engto fatherless shame. And now, the lish lordling. Or rather, he traded ber for a titled son in-law, and gave ing from the mob, which desires to then Chinese. Kansas and Nebraska half a million dollars to boot, in the do him justice. Let our laws be re- wail over their devastating hopper shape of dower. The young filly modeled, and seduction be made a grasses. The South writhes b thus disposed-of in the foreign market, is said to be passably bandsome and intelligent; but ber flunke daddy has doubtless made a good bargain - unless her noblem an should turn out to be a stray cockney bar-

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE. The nomination of Dr. R D. Old T. R. Allen has written a lethannon for Superintendent of Public ter to the Missouri Democrat, in Instruction will be bailed with sat- which he ingubriously gives went to isfaction by all who know him and the troubles of his overflowing soul. his peculiar fitness for the position. Before the Democratic convention Not only is he a good man for the he had a talk with Bill Hyde, of the place, but he is a native Missourian Republican, and Bill said they and is in complete sympathy with our wouldn't put a granger on the ticket institutions. His predecessors have and sure enough they-did. But, then been men who were saddled upon who was it they put on? Nobody but the state by the effects of the late Coiman and Diegel; and such drywar, and presumed to foist upon us bones, says the Grand Master, won't a system of education that has been do. To pay so little respect to the not only inefficient but odious. In farmers was an insult: the ticket the first place, immediately after the ought to have been made up from close of the war, we were afflicted top to bottom of farmers, as there with a broad of teachers, both male are no other classes of any worth or and female, brought from the bot- influence in the state. And now the beds of New England fanaticism, and Grand Master falls back defiautly on es-essing a very limited knowledge what he told "M1. Hyde," which American jurisprudence. was that, "if that convention ignored They came here supposing we were the farmers, its ticket will be beatin a state of semi-barbarism, having en." Hear, O Israel, for a prophet no ability to instruct ourselves, but hath spoken-to bow much profit redependent upon the charities and maineth to be seen. Democrate will nissionary impulses of those highly now quake in despair. Colman, "the favored mortals who live further east. farmers' friend," and Diegel, the ability and culture. He has, for Sumberless old-maid school marms, thrifty farmer and zealous granger, 'ull of compassionate zeal, came are nothing. In fact, the Grand ramping over our soil, self-constitu- Master is in a bad way. He thought ed pioneers of a new civilization. he was chief boss and grand panjan-The old methods of teaching were drum of all Missouri, but comebow contemptuously reversed, and the or otherhow it turns out differently. ovelties of yankee speculative minds The Democrats had a whole conven mposed and maintained. Our peotion at Jefferson, and T. R. Allen's le were laughed at, their children name was not mentioned. It was lassed as young beathers, and all of not even known that he was there. s dubbed ignoramuses and border-But he was, and now lete all the peo ruffians. School-books were changed, ple know it. He was passing by and it just "happened without any previand soon changed again; each new yankee peddler had to be patronized. ous design," that he could stop and The school-books prepared by Mislend the light of his countenance tourians, or any authors inclined to and the wisdom of his counsel; but outhern ideas, were kicked out and then he was so quiet about it, that and in the society of Northern Kenscouted. Radical notions swarmed the world would have elumbered in in everything that was taught; they profound ignorance of its indebtedcrept into geography, political econness, even unto this 5th day of Sep omy, dictionaries, readers, histories tember, in the year of grace 1874. and civil government. All, all were had not the Grand Master spoken impregnated with the sentiments, out. He is a modest man, and don't styles and tendencies of that virulent, say much or urge himself forward. woman's-rightey element, that is so He is a patriot, works solely for the abominable to every true Missouri good of the people and never thinks man and woman. The blood has about holding office. sometimes boiled to our veins as we But why, oh ! tell us why all this have seen these things. To think unessiness and fitful glamour of dis Grosvenor both on it? Oh, what a of the high and noble characters of appointment, that overcaste his let ter to the Democrat? Something to the opinions of unwomanly wo- has touched the man in a tender men and unmanly men, whom we were forced to accept as teachers, was whole nation's destiny, he censures so utterly revolting, that we swore rebukes and warns. The Democrat eternal vengeance against the whole je ticket is a failure, for the Grand system of education that gave them Ma-ass ter has said so. He was at rible dagger stab. An iron constibated, a despised borde that knew of he speaks.

nothing of our wants, cared nothing And now cometh this thing, more or them, laughed at our misfortunes, ver: the nomination of Brother and pocketed our money. Teachers Gentry by the 1-3 is. The last blow who had been reared and educated has fallen and the Grand Master on Missouri soil were not fit to "turns up." A certain little game teach the children of their own state. seems to be busted and the mighty but had to struggle along at low grunger giascutus waileth and is sick wages and often-times were thrust unto death. Like a choleratic lion, his carcass lies outstretched and his moans reach to the beavens. He deliverance. Missourians will bence- foams and kicks, and will not be forth much Missourians. The Masconsoled. The 1-3ds bave nomina sachusetts school marm may take ted Gentry instead of Allen. All was decided. But when he beheld up her wallet and depart. Let that self-sacrifice, all that traveling, himself, in addition to all his other up her wallet and depart. Let that self-sacrifice, all that traveling, her go to people who need more than all that lecturing, all that writing for we, ber civilizing influence. We will "leading political papers," all that try to get along without her. We wearing of old hats and seedy pants, have a few colleges that surely teach all that laborious scattering of hayas much as a New England public seed and lofty scorning of office-huntavagely seized bim, thrust him left-handed swipe: last soiled thread in his grand as much as a New England public seed and lofty scorning of office-hunting, was for naught, and long-cherished gubernatorial aspirations are him, wou > william-goat's caudal shoo fiv. can award it no more appalling pre-Is there no balm in Gilead, and is here no physician there? Grangers, apset and spilled all over the state. behold your chieftain. See him with Its every sod is recking with the blood of slaughter. Eleven murders. reproach. He points you to the twenty-two shooting and stabbing Governor's chair, and says between affrays, and the wholesale killings his sobs: "you have left-no place and burnings at Lancaster, all in for the sole of my foot, or the and prejudice against a man wind four weeks. and not one legal hange seat of my trousers." Oh! man of was to be tried for his life. It liter self-abnegation, thy labors have been to blast, for a generation, the fame in vain. The cry of triumph that goes forth with the Democratic ticket, is offensive to thee; but remem-Clay and Crittenden reposed in each ber thy little tricks of the past, and of them. Its a horrid blot upon know that the way of the transgressor is hard tinge of justice to the yankee bowl ing in four times as long,—is enough of any ordinary balt-dozen commonwealths, even through the bones of Southern civilization. It gives about our ruffianism, beathenism.

barbarism. The true men of Ken tucky should rise in the resistles might and majesty of right; crush

out this hideous lawlessness, at once

Another perdition-deserving apos

tate apostle has disgraced his saint-ly vestments, and brought down re proach, like a thousand rotten pump kins on the holy cause of which b

was a professed standard-bearer

has been pastor of the Prospect sey City. But he isn't any more.

Reverend John S. Glendening is flee-

on the spot.

stend of Pandemonium

Radicalism in disguise down with Missourians,

JOE MERCER.

That peevish old jade-the St. Louis Republican-has a great deal and forever : resone their state from reproach ; and render the beauteons of fault to find with the nomination of Joe Mercer, for state treasurer. Blue Grass Realm, - what nature Now why? We know something of designed it to be -a Paradise in that thing ourselves, and Mercer was elected as fairly as any one on the ticket. There was no ring or friends, like every other candidate, and they worked faithfully for him just as they should have done. The Republican needn't be un-The Reverend John S. Glendening or anybody else' baving a finger in Street Presbyterian church, in Jerthe treasury pie. In fact, we know that Amos Green had nothing to do Like his more eminent exemplar with the arging of Mercer's claims, and brother, Beecher, be is in trouble. Parties baving very different, and Under the pastoral mantle, he even antagonistic, interests worked destroyed one of the fairest ewe in his behalf. A prominent stocklambs of his flock. Beneath the holder in a bank that has no sympaspecious guise of ministerial care thy whatever with the Mastins, was and love, he seduced Miss Mary one of his most active supporters at Pomeroy, an intelligent and refined Jefferson City. Mercer is not a but too trusting member of his con- man to be run by a clique or ring, capital crime. Shield trusting inno- neath the curse of her 4,000,000 ceace from the scent of these lestful niggers. And yankeedoodledom disblood-hounds of Zion. Hang them counts them all combined, in woe and shame, with her Beecher-Tilton Woodbull-Authory plague.

Plymouth Church is no more; but the Beecher Harem flourisheth like a forest of green bay-ram bottles. | become the Sinagogue of Lust.

TERRELL-MYERS

Notable Kentucky Case-And Shameful Newspaper

Never since the famous Matt Ward and Butler case, has public interest along the Kentucky border been so aroused, as in the pending trial of Col. W. G. Terrell for the murder of Hon. Harvey Myers, at escape chastisement, and with no intention of regarding them ;—all both the parties, their extensive and influential connections, the long train of exciting circumstances that led to the act, and the brilliant array of legal talent enlisted on either cration of every true citizen of the region he disgraces will, we trust, ere long drive him from the charge side, all combine to render it memorable cause in the annals of of so generally respectable a paper as the Cincinnati Enquirer; and Colonal Terrell was an officer in the United States service; is brother of Brigadier General Terrell of the regular army : has another brother and a son in the navy; and is himself a man of a high order of some years, been connected with the editorial staff of the Cincinnati Commercial, and from his pen have come many of the polished and powerful articles that have shed a lustre over

Hon. Harvey Myers was the lawpartner of Governor, now United States Senator, Stevenson. He was a man of decided strength, indomitable energy and imperious will. Of commanding physique, with an sg and an ample fortune acquired by his own exertions, be had long filled a conspicuous position at the bar tucky.

and the suit involved a large amount of property. Myers, as Mrs. Terreli's attorney, prosecuted it with Personal grudges and hostilities lent an intensity of bitterness to the discharge of legal duties. Friends of each party were drawn into the fierce controversy, until finally all Covington and Newport were arrayed to antagonism. Altereations and street broils between the heated partisans were of frequent occurrence. And, about the first of last February, a young ruffian of the Myers faction, on one of the principal thoroughfares of Covington, with an assassin's blow, prevented it from killing him. En feebled, shattered by his frightful wound, with his stomach bandaged out of his room, as one arisen from ers redoubled the ruthlessness of his warfare. He charged Terrell with Stung to the quick; maddened by his wrongs; his wife taken from him; his property swept away; the attacks upon his bonor—all be had left tacks upon his bonor—all he man tacks upon his bonor—all he man had already challenged Myers to bad already challenged myers to injuries, branded as infamous, b planation from his foe. Supporting through two rooms and a long hall, and was just in the act of hurling him wounded as he was headleng

Harvey Myers was dead. nection with the Commercial, the Cincinnati Enquirer, with a spirit not to credit for efficiency. streaming eyes and up-lifted hands of of flendishness, thank God without a parallel in the history of newspaperdom, seized upon the opportunity to make capital for if by pandering to all the bate ally speculated, ghoul-like and horri-ble, in the blood of a fellow-man. It was a chance to build up itself and damage a rival, in two leading cities of Kentucky. What cared its editors and proprietors for the fact that the life of a feeble, ruined, outraged, desperate man, in the Covington ail, was at stake? A bundred or two more subscribers might be se oured by pandering to the fierce passions of the hour. Its columns dails teemed with ferocious abuse of the hapless prisoner, of his counsel, his friends, of everybody that dared lean either to justice or humanity.

John A. Logan, of Illinois, was employed to assist in the prosecu-The defence was entrusted t our chivalric and gifted friend, Col. D. S. Hounsbell, of Newport, whose lion's soul was roused by the perseoutions to which his client was subthe ticket. There was no ring or jected. Around him were grouped combination about it. He had as counsel, Dan. Voorbees, the great Democratic chieftain of the Wabash Valley, one of the ablest criminal awyers and most silvery-tongued por John G. Carlisle and Gen easy about the Mastins, Amos Green George B. Hodge, of Kentacky; and or anybody else' baving a finger in Gen. Platt, of Ohio. Such an assemblage of Titans had rarely been room. The Enquirer, with blind, beastly malignity, daily poured out a deluge of filthy abuse upon all Sheriff Percival of Covington Kenton county, for remarks attributed to him, called a council of his eminent colleagues. They all felt that the course of the paper was not only infamous in regard to them-selves, but calculated to do infinite New York snob and horse-jockey exonerating him. She died, leaving we find we are, the whole state will to call the managing editor, Col millionaire, has just effected a sale a wretched, little, few-hours old waif preliminary letter was immediately drawn up, approved by the whole party, and sent by a friend of Col.

that all the obnoxious articles had appeared without his knowledge; and promised an instant and entire reform. The gentleman who bore Judge, then, of their astonishment wants bereafter?"

when, in two or three days afterward,
the Kaquirer burst forth in far more Life is but a day a The Tabernacle of Plymouth has the Kaquirer burst forth in far more violent and ferocious style than over.

The prisoner, each and all his countaine every hour, feet not clouds will always lower.

WOODSON'S PETS.

Another Dash by Missouri's Wild

ingron, was hardly in type, till its perpedestitute of either houor or courage, trators had almost deplicated it thirty His fiendlish hounding down of a wounded and imprisoned man, as a midst of a dense piece of woods, five miles wounded and imprisoned man, as a mids of a dense piece of wood, we miles aimple business speculation; his from Carrollton, the hack from Waverly, skulking and shuffling; his lying with four passengers, two ladies and two pledges and promises, only given to gentlemen. Was captured by the same escape chastisement, and with no marked trie. They rode suddenly out of cle of infamy rarely attained by a the driver, while a big navy revolver was metropolitan journalist. The exe thrust into each door of the vehicle, acand cheerful. The Lexington on fellow standing guard over the team, auing that one of the gentlemen was a but kept his scanty funds. His endeavors to secure a return of money as well as atch, were met by the dec this preacher business is getting too d—d ing, gives them a portable capital of abou ments are shrouded in mystery. The Kar ation. The valley of the Little vandering trapper, is said to abound whole truth and nothing but that rate vegetable. Green Douthitt had sold a to BORN .. Junction. He went over the rive platform, with John Young, when three men rode up to the stock-pens, two o ful gray horse, very much like Offutt' the Catholic and Irish population of Missouri, in its issue of to-day, gives few steps to meet them; but, perceiving horse: "I beg pardon, sir, but I mistoo you for Mr. Offutt." The fellow replie carelessly, adding, as he looked re times in Lafayette, now?" Douthit nd mob law sum up things over there.

A SLANDER.

so peculiar fis-hed across the faces of al

three, that Douthitt was rather startled

strange outfit. He observed their magn exterproof blanket strapped on behin

ols, caught glimpses of a pair of heav

300 of hog-money in his pocket, he ver

ck to the party at the depot; and, tel

ere the James boys, struck out for the

the river, the mysterious horsemen has stopped it, and the robbery had begun on the boat would share the fate of the erry-boat. Before he reached

We perceive that some of the papers have been crediting the Governor with a recent speech, in which he confidently claimed credit for efficiency for his admindid not fear, that the unavenged gi of Cass and Callaway counties w rise and push him from his stool. Governor may be entitled to the be onventioned at Pittaburg, and agreed o advance their prices $6 a ton Bow, bend, break beneath the burdens of your shoddy Eastern masters, oh, ye Western Issachars ! Their iron goes up ; your grain goes down. Their gold-bonds are rising; your lands are falling. They are growing richer every hour ; you are stagger ing slowly but surely to a nations poor-house, to universal pauperism, degradation. Trot along. Be pa tient. The credit of the govern ment must be maintained. The pock ets of yankee pirates must be filled. Your beggary, death, dam nation are nothing. Rally round the flag ! Hurrah for the Union ! Bally for Hardin is one of the biggest farm wners and tillers in Missouri. Colman raises more imported Cotswold buckleberries, pure-blooded Durham pigs, imported Berkshire calves and thoroughbred Alderney colts, than any other man between the great daddy of waters and the golden vales. prators in the Union ; Lieut. Gover- of the Pacific slope. And Diegel is a thrifty German farmer and zealous granger. And yet, old granny Allen. Thos. R., mendaciously whimpers an expense of $3,000. in any Western court that the farmers of Missouri were adopted; and, under it, the state utterly ignored by the Democratic Convention. The whole charge, these distinguished gentlemen. Col. complaint, snivel, or what-dye-call-it, Hounshell, who had already whipped is an utterly—utterly—yes, utter-lie, marched steadily and grandly forcomplaint, snivel, or what-dye-call-it, But it was framed by patriots. The even if the bay-seed grand-mogul did 200 days, at a cost of $200,000, to manufacture it; and then, it was By his knightly bearing in the overwhelmingly defeated, rejected, recent gubernatorial struggle, Gen. scorned by the people. It was Cockrell has placed himself far tinkered-up by Radical politicians of gregation. Then, pistol in hand, he but will act fairly and squarely, or damage to their helpless eigent; and builted her into signing a statement we are egregiously deceived;—and if Col Hounshell promptly volunteered position, which Carl Schurz has lately used to misrepresent every true such a source, was an unmitigated man in his state upon the great humbug and fraud. State constitu vital question of finance. One of tions should be framed,-not by his bitterest and ablest opponents in brawling mob conventions of barthe convention last week, when the room politicians and jackleg law-Hounshell, the same evening. Cock-the convention last week, when the room politicians and jackleg law-ereis at once crawdished; declared result was announced, exclaimed: yers,—but by Commissions of a "Well, I've belped to beat Frank dozen or two eminent citizens, of Cockrell for governor. I believed both parties, whose ability and induty to my friends demanded it. tegrity every one recognises. the letter was satisfied, and all the But, by G-d, I'm for him, against by the legislature or the people, parties regarded the affair as settled. the world, for anything he ever

Beecher's committee, of course. found him not guilty, but Beecher in America to-day is a very different beman from Beecher in America three

A QUESTION OF VERACITY.

The Carrollto Journal, of this reek, contains the appended state-

This is all a mistake. Gen, Clark let paragraphs of this character, and our veracity being questioned, we put it again in this more distinct form: Gen. J. B. Clark, Jr., candidate for Congress, did tell us of his own free volution, without prompting on our part, nor yet privately, but at a public house in Carrollton, in the presence of a gentleman of pharacter and standing. that he had character and standing, that he had lost fifteen thousand dollars by the dissipation and gambling of a one (naming him) with whom he had left the unfinished business of his sheriff's office; and he repeated the same while walking the distance of fifty yards toward the Public square. We supposed the matter to be true, and that the General expected, if he did not seek, sympathy, and for this reason we give it to our readers We thus make the restatement un nistakably clear, and hold ourself in readiness to prove every word of it; and we now direct this paragraph pointedly to the editor of the Fayette Advertiser, and through it to Gen. John B. Clark, Jr.

A CARD. EDITORS CAUCASIAN: I desire to say to nase cur and polirons, whom I intend to hold it triot-account for his slanders, as soon as earn who he is. And I also intend he our for islander the papers publishing his infamous an belium faiserhoods. I had no more connection with said robbery than an inform bale, which act I can said will prove by the best men is extingion, and I will establish the utter fainty of every word in regard to myself, which ap-sears in the Baroo's account.

MARRIED.

JOHN DOGGETT'S DRY GOODS PALACE.

Kansas City

our intention to keep a splendid stock of Dress Goods for the Fall trade. Specialties vill be made in Black Silks, Alpacas and Mohairs. The best Black Silk at $1 50 and $1 75 that can be found in the United The best black Mobalr at 95 cents, eve seen in this section of the country; of course we have qualities at lower prices.

The best Two Ply or Ingrain Carpet manufactured, only $1 10 per yard. The second best quality, also all wool, at only 90 cents. Just compare these prices with what you have been accustomed to pay. Grangers supplied on the most liberal Samples sent by mail when requested Agent for Mad, Demorest's Patterns.

GIRARD HOUSE Corner Broadway and Biddle St., ST. LOUIS, MO.

Douthitt sprang aboard, and urged Capt NEWLY FURNISHED. $1.50 PER DAY. in the omalbus. He and Loomis hid their VIC. ADAMI & BRO., pocket-books down in the darkness of th sold, the boat dropped out into the river

L. D. SINE'S

Gift Enterprise! To be drawn Monday, Oct. 12th, 1674. One Grand Capital Prize, $10,000 IN GOLD!

OTH SEMI-ANNUAL

AGENTS WANTED TO SELL TICKETS, to

respectfully solicited. Of W. Pitth St. D. GIMM POR GO.

WILSON'S SEVEN WONDERS THE WORLD

First Wonder!

Cheap Table of Grass Cloths and Lines

Second Wonder!

Cheap Table of Dress Goods and Law less than one-third of their actual value.

Third Wonder!

Piques, Yosemite Stripes, white and co Cyrilla Stripes printed in beautiful small figures.

Fourth Wonder!

Parasols! Parasols! Fans! Fans! Fans! Fans!

Fifth Wonder!

Hosiery and Handkerchiefs for Ladies Mens' wear.

Sixth Wonder!

Cassimeres, (English and American) Cottonades and Linens, for Men and Boys's

Seventh Wonder!

Embroideries! Embroideries! Edgings, Fla ings and Insertings.

We guarantee Bottom Prices. Respectfully,

HUGH T. WILSO

Read and Remember

LEXINGTON, MO., ARE DEALERS IN ALL KINDS OF

NEW STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GO SUITABLE FOR EVERYBODY

LADIES' DRESS GOOD

ALSO, A FULL LINE OF White Goods, Embroideries, Notions, Hats

Caps, Furs and Gloves. Watkins & Son's Cassimeres, Flannels, Yarns and Blu A SPECIALTY.

A complete stock of Hardware.

VALUABLE GIFTS! City Fruit & News Depo

No. 67 Main Street.

I have just received the largest and choicest stock of

Prizes $1,000 EACH INGreenbacks of Plain and Fancy Confectioner and Marched Roses and Plain and Fancy Confectioner and Plain and Plain and Fancy Confectioner and Plain and Plain and Fancy Confectioner and Plain and Pla to be found in the west, consisting of all the latest ties known to the trade, which cannot fail to please er

I have also on hand the largest stock of Fruits, etc., to be found in the city. Soda Water from my spendid fountain "ICEBERG the most refreshing drink for the warm weather. Ace

GEO. G. CUMMING.